RECOVERY PROGRAM

As I go through the Recovery Steps this year, I will be using several different pieces of our literature for these steps. I am using the Gamblers Anonymous Working the Steps pamphlet, as well as the Gamblers Anonymous Writing the Steps booklet. These are both available in the online store on our website at www.gamblersanonymous.org.

I hope you find these helpful and they somehow help you in your journey in some way.

STEP 10 - Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong, promptly admitted it.

Now that we have progressed through the first nine steps, we should be ready to maintain them with the last three steps. Each day, take an inventory. This inventory is for today only and it shows quite clearly if the day has been used wisely or not. The daily balance sheet will help you see personal growth as you realize that you are accomplishing things which you could not do before. This is a good feeling which gradually increases self-worth and self-esteem. Changing “love of self” a fantasy, to “self-love;” is a reality.

In taking an inventory, look for personal growth, not perfection. For example, make a list containing five items you want to achieve. At night, the inventory might reveal that you accomplished three. Be happy with three. Remember the many days, months and even years, when you tried to think of even one thing of a positive nature that you had done. Seek daily progress, not perfection. Growth may be slow and small but be grateful for progress. The ability to cope is perhaps the most valuable reward which you will receive from the program. One no longer has to avoid a problem by ignoring or side stepping the issue. With some problems, particularly at first, you may cope weakly. So what? Don't avoid responsibility, and as you cope on a daily basis, you will become more skillful. One day at a time becomes a lifetime. Some of us tend to be overachievers; we tend to take on tasks for which we are not yet ready. Either we are too new in the program to handle such a problem, or we are too ambitious. Take it easy, a little progress each day is a great reward. Perhaps two questions we might ask ourselves each day are these - Did I help another person today? Did I contribute to harmony in my world today? It is suggested that no major changes be made during the first two years of abstinence. The mental and emotional imbalance we brought to Gamblers Anonymous needs time to heal. After two years our thoughts are much clearer and success much more reachable. Abstinence combined with physical, mental, and emotional healing will give us a logical ability to cope.

The second part of the step is sometimes more difficult. To promptly admit to being wrong means that one has become a little humble and that can rid oneself of deceit, arrogance, false pride, and other character defects. If you can admit to being wrong right now, you are truly gaining a deeper insight into yourself. Freely admit the other party is right and being glad for them, even appreciating confrontation and constructive criticism is a giant step. This step and the two which follow, if done each day, will help maintain daily growth. Another view is that Steps One through Nine are never done and should be regularly repeated.

Step Ten tells us to put our GA way of living to practical use.

1. To maintain the desire to stop gambling.
2. To maintain emotional balance under all circumstances.

DISCUSS:

- A. How can we carry our GA way of living into our daily lives?
- B. What particular circumstances “tick” us off and create anger?

We cannot make much of our lives until we form the habit of self-appraisal (taking regular inventory).

1. Our first objective is to restrain angers, actions, and judgments which encourage impatience.
2. Create insurance against our return to “big shotism.”

DISCUSS:

- A. Do we “think” before we speak? Are we prone to snap judgments?
- B. Are we less angry since coming to GA? Why?
- C. Are we still slaves to our emotions?

Daily inventories will become routine, not the unusual.

1. Calming the moment.
2. Deciding who is right and wrong.
3. Revealing our true motives.

DISCUSS:

- A. Do we still justify our feelings of anger?
- B. Tolerance of others. Has it improved? Why?
- C. Is saying “I’m sorry” painful?
- D. If apology is becoming easier...when did this start? Why?

Delay of apologies and procrastination is a defense.

DISCUSS:

- A. Why should we promptly admit wrongs?
- B. Having a “defense” signifies a war or contest. Who are we fighting? Why?
- C. Hiding...

From the desk of your International Executive Secretary.

As we finish the October bulletin, I would like to thank all the members, groups, intergroups, and RSOs who consistently contribute to your International Service Office to enable us to keep the doors open and help the compulsive gambler who still suffers. We could not do this without you.

I'd also like to let you all know about the walk-a-thon at the Chicagoland International Conference in November. It's going to be a fundraiser for your International Service Office and will be held Saturday, November 18, 2023, in Chicago. Check out the upcoming announcements for more information.

Have you ever been to an International Conference? If so, what's your favorite memory from ones you've attended? I love attending international conferences. I get to see people I haven't seen in a while, and I get to meet people from all over the world. I find them to be amazing for growth in the fellowship.

When you were working the steps, did you find that Step 10 was easy to do or difficult? For me, it was difficult at first to take accountability for my behavior. I spent so many years projecting all of my negative faults onto others, I didn't know how to own my own behavior. It took a while for me to get the hang of it, but it then became second nature. Being more self-aware of my behavior helps me in my daily inventory.

Yours in recovery and gratitude, KC B.

GROUP NEWS

Note From I.S.O.: Thank you to all our members who send in letters, donations, and kind words each month. Please keep writing and sharing your experience, strength, and hope with everyone.

Dear I.S.O.,

The passing of Bill B (NYC) on October 8, 2023, brings sadness to me. A link to the beginnings of Gamblers Anonymous is part of his legacy and his involvement started with the early years of our program. Bill's knowledge of history and his years of service helped lay the foundation for our growth and recovery.

In July of 1970, he was the voice on the other end of the phone and directed me to the meeting on Sunday evening in Flushing, Queens and my wife to Gam-Anon. Bill traveled to Florida in 2015 to present me with his 45-year pin that he received from a fellow member in California. The legacy has continued as I have passed it on to another member here in Florida.

Thank you, Bill B., for your never-ending service, your abstinence and recovery and, especially, your friendship. Gamblers Anonymous will miss you.

Rest in Peace, Bill B. Delray Beach FL.

Where would you be today without G.A.? Become a Lifeliner Today!

A Lifeliner is a member of the G.A. fellowship who cares enough about the financial well being of G.A. to make a monthly donation. This donation helps to insure that G.A. will always be there for the compulsive gambler who still suffers.

You will benefit by becoming a Lifeliner because...

- ... it offers you a way to give back to the program that has given you so much.
- ... it allows you to make a commitment to the program in a more direct way.
- ... it helps the International Service Office to spread the message to those who haven't yet been blessed as you have.
- ... it makes you one of a special group of people who do a little extra for the program that saved their lives.
- ... it gives you a sense of responsibility.
- ... it helps you remember that Gamblers Anonymous needs you as much as you need Gamblers Anonymous.

We are self supporting through our own contributions.

How often have you thought or heard: "Gamblers Anonymous saved my life. I can't do enough to repay the program for what it has done for me."

One of the ways you can give is by becoming a Lifeliner. Simply fill out the bottom of this flyer and send it to I.S.O. with your personal monthly tax deductible contribution and you will receive a receipt by return mail along with an envelope for your next month's contribution. It's that easy!!

Do it today – it's the right thing to do!
