RECOVERY PROGRAM

With the start of a new year, we go all the way back to Step 1! During the odd years, I will post about the recovery program and list some exercises that you can write and journal about. I'll be using the Gamblers Anonymous: A New Beginning red book, and our Gamblers Anonymous Writing the Steps booklet for these steps. Each of these items can be purchased at the ISO store online at www.gamblersanonymous.org.

Each month, I'll list the recovery step that coincides with that month. There will be information about the steps taken from the red book and then some exercises you can do from the Working the Steps booklet.

Do you have a favorite step that you've worked on? Your least favorite? I would love to hear from you, and your letter could end up in a future edition of the bulletin!

For me, my favorite to work was Step 4. I know, I know, it sounds crazy. I loved being able to get all of that out of me and onto paper. I can't say that I have a least favorite. If I absolutely had to choose, I'd say Step 8 or Step 9. I had to put myself on my list in Step 8 and then in Step 9 I actually had to make amends to myself. It was easy for me to do that with other people, but not so much for myself.

STEP 12 - Having made an effort to practice these principles in all our affairs, we tried to carry this message to other compulsive gamblers.

This is the most popular step of all; even brand-new members want to give of themselves. The bottom line, however, seems to be that one cannot give away something that one does not have. Saying it another way, you cannot carry the recovery program to another unless you are practicing the Twelve Steps in your life, one day at a time. Then you will have a strong message to carry.

Ask yourself if this is a spiritual program and it is. The chances are that your spiritual bankruptcy was complete. Most of us early in our gambling career abandoned our spiritual values. Now as these values are returning and with gratitude you will want to share them with other members as once they were shared with you. Listening and hearing what the other members are experiencing is probably the first opportunity you will have to help. Sometimes we teach when we should be listening. Listening itself will communicate to others your personal understanding of what they are saying. Let's reflect. Do you remember how low in self-esteem you were when you attended your first Gamblers Anonymous meeting? You had no faith and therefore no hope. As you listened and talked and eventually looked at yourself and the others (who seemed happy around the table) faith and hope slowly returned.

Recall that the first member you met came to the meeting early, arranged the table, put out the combo books and put on water for coffee.

Were they working Step Twelve? Yes, by showing you they cared for you and all the other members. Caring seems a prime and necessary ingredient in order to work this Step. If you don't care, how can you share?

Then this caring member told you that the program was and must be self-help. Then, he/she explained another Gamblers Anonymous paradox. If you give of yourself and try to help another human being, you will gain from the act of giving, even if your effort fails. It is in giving that we receive and so it becomes self-help. Remember two words - effort and tried. Success in this Step is putting forth the effort and trying to carry the message - not how many heard you or followed your advice.

When you left the meeting, you had to return to the wreckage you had created. You gave your phone number and received a phone list. You were probably too shy and ashamed to make a call, but within the next day or so a member called you. It wasn't so much what was said as the fact that someone cared enough to call. This serves to revitalize your faith and hope. Again, caring embodies all the nice elements of spiritual growth.

As you started to come out of the fog, you had a sponsor and hoped they would give you the time, experience and wisdom. This unwritten contract to help another seems the highest degree of working Step Twelve; it is caring at the highest level.

Following are some of the many ways by which one can practice Step Twelve:

- Be an example of quality abstinence.
- Accompany another member on a Twelve Step call.
- Visit sick members.
- Phone members.
- Chat after meetings with new members or those with problems.
- Assume some of the duties, obligations and responsibilities of the Fellowship.
- Explain your disease and how you arrested it to relatives, doctors, and employers.
- Tell your story to help a fellow member.
- Do public relations work.
- Practice the Gamblers Anonymous Program.

Step Twelve offers us the opportunity to use our new knowledge and GA experience. Putting it to work! Success means trying.

1. Helping other compulsive gamblers in and outside the fellowship.
2. “Giving” which demands nothing in return.

DISCUSS:

- Are we ready and willing to help others?
- What does “ready” mean and can we help others as “newcomers?”
- What is 12 Step work? Sponsoring, telephone calls, clean-up, etc.

We find in Step Twelve that we have received a special gift by working the entire recovery program.

1. Life is not a dead end. There is purpose to life.
2. We are now an example of “recovery” through the GA Program.

DISCUSS:

- Personal experience with previous 11 Steps.
- Is the job finished?
- Why do many members say, “I am a grateful compulsive gambler?”

Some members are prone to “two stepping” – working only Steps One and Twelve.

1. Sponsoring other members becomes discouraging.
2. We often give advice where we are not qualified and then feel hurt when we are rejected.

DISCUSS:

- A. Guiding new members – GA suggestions.
- B. Do we tend to over-manage circumstances? Can we be too involved in a member’s recovery?
- C. The need to attempt to work all twelve steps.

We can carry our GA spirit into our daily affairs.

1. Adjusting to all conditions.
2. Our GA efforts provide the tools to overcome wearying problems which plague the unprepared.

DISCUSS:

- A. How we reflect and see our growth in the angry and confused behavior of others while we are calm and confident.
- B. What your personal ABSTENTION from gambling symbolizes.

From the desk of your International Executive Secretary.

As we complete the December bulletin, I’d like to say thank you to all of you who have continuously contributed to the ISO and its ability to help the compulsive gambler who still suffers. I appreciate all you do to help the fellowship continue growing. We could not do this without you.

If you’ve wondered how to give back, you could become a LifeLiner. If you aren’t already, please consider signing up as a LifeLiner and contribute monthly so that the I.S.O. can continue its amazing work of getting literature out and helping people find meetings all over the world. If you send it via Venmo or Zelle, please be sure to put your Lifeliner number in the memo section. If you’re a new Lifeliner, please put in the memo that you are a new Lifeliner. That way, when the office gets it, they know what it’s for and can assign a number.

As we work Step 12 this month, are there any service positions that you’ve held that meant more to you than others? This is the step where we are able to use what we’ve learned and help others. We step out of ourselves and give to others what we’ve been given while working this amazing program of recovery. How do you work Step 12? How do you carry the message?

Be sure to keep an eye out for the Board of Trustees meeting minutes. They should be in the January or February edition. Your Trusted Servants met in Denver at the beginning of November to vote on literature changes and other items to help our fellowship grow.

I am so grateful for this program and the members. You teach me on a daily basis. You teach me humility, courage, honesty, and integrity. I couldn't do it without you. Thank you for being on this journey with me.

As the holidays approach, are you ready? Do you find that you're more organized during the holiday season since you've stopped gambling? Are holidays a trigger for you? There was a time when the holidays created such a sense of panic and anxiety in me, I disliked them a lot. As the days progressed, I started to enjoy the holidays and look forward to them a little bit more each year. I am grateful the program taught me how to deal with my emotions and learn to enjoy this time of year that used to cause me such anxiety.

I hope you and your family have an amazing, loving, and safe holiday season.

Yours in recovery and gratitude, KC B.

A quick message from the International Service Office

Dear Members, Groups, & Intergroups,

It is with a heavy heart that we inform you of the sudden passing of Alex the Jeweler, who has been making our pins for almost 30 years.

His son (who is not a jeweler) has stepped up to help supply us with the pins we will need.

We kindly ask that you only order the gold-plated pins you need at the time of ordering. We're noticing higher amounts ordered for pins needed and hearing that it's to help pad the Intergroup Literature stock.

Unlike all other Gamblers Anonymous pieces of literature, we simply do not carry a huge number of pins in stock especially during this time of transition.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

ISO Staff
