RECOVERY PROGRAM

As I go through the Recovery Steps this year, I will be using several different pieces of our literature for these steps. I am using the Gamblers Anonymous Working the Steps pamphlet, as well as the Gamblers Anonymous Writing the Steps booklet. These are both available in the online store on our website at www.gamblersanonymous.org.

I hope you find these helpful and they help you in your journey in some way.

STEP 7 - Humbly asked God (of our understanding) to remove our shortcomings.

Now you're being asked to seek, to remove, via your Higher Power, your character defects. Is this really necessary? It certainly is! Character defects were a major portion of the reason one gambled. Therefore, keeping these defects can lead one back to gambling.

For example, let's take one defect – anger. Assume you get into an argument, handle it poorly and become blindly angry, anger turns into rage. Then you feel something must be done to relieve this terrible hateful feeling and resort to what comes naturally – gambling. In the past, as you know, that pain caused by anger was at least temporarily eased through gambling. Compulsive gambling is a learned, inadequate response to life. You must rid yourself of the disturbances that you have acquired through gambling.

What can be done to prevent such a relapse? First, you must have a desire to remove this defect. To realize the shortcoming can destroy you, desire comes more easily if you realize what is at stake. If you are masochistic, the desire to change may be slower in coming. Assuming you want to live, however, try to take the step as indicated and humbly ask your Higher Power to remove the defect.

Humbly ask for help? A nice person who never hurt anyone except themselves. When you've survived for so long, all by yourself, how can you humbly ask for help? Look at your track record with absolute honesty. Have you really been a winner? This honest look at your chaotic years should assure you that anger must go, if only a little at a time. You can only concentrate on one defect at a time. This is a slower process, but it enables you to focus more clearly. Also, working defects singly is, for most, more comfortable.

Having selected a defect, seek help from your Higher Power. Each morning shortly after getting up, seek the will of your Higher Power daily as life's problems arise. Ask for help in reducing or removing the defect on which you will be working on that day. You must do the legwork so your Higher Power can finish the job as He sees fit.

At this point, learning to cope is a new adventure. This is something many refused or were unable to do before entering Gamblers Anonymous. It's strange at first, but each time you cope you get better at it. When you leave the world of reality and slip into irrational anger, you should now be able to recognize that something is wrong. You now have to get yourself back on the right track so you can deal with today. Anger, the defect on which you were working, still might be a problem. It will scare you when you react with so little control. Anger could you back to a bet via the hatred and resentment created. You're not entitled to be angry; it's an enemy, not a friend.

Each day, practice restraint until, God willing, you have formed a beautiful new habit, a positive habit. Today anger should be under control and connate lead you back into your addiction. Feel good about that. The same procedure can then be applied to another defect. Now you can see how your Higher Power can remove defects, if your Higher Power chooses to do so.

Step Seven states that acquiring greater humility is the foundation of the Twelve Steps.

- Without this precious quality we cannot expect happiness.
- The word "Humility" is disliked and greatly misunderstood in our world.

DISCUSS:

- Is a humble individual a weak individual?
- Was our gambling a show of courage and/or proof that we were different from our fellows?

Depending exclusively on our individual strength and intelligence is a blockage to faith in God.

- Admitting our powerlessness was the 1st step to liberation from our gambling obsession.
- Some humility was required to stop gambling and to walk through the GA doors.

DISCUSS:

- Your growth in Gamblers Anonymous.

- Dependence on meetings, sponsor, etc.
- First meeting: Shame? Fear? Other?

We have acquired some peace by working Steps 4, 5, and 6.

- These humbling steps have provided a source of serenity.
- We should face this fact and proceed to search for deeper personal objectives.

DISCUSS:

- What is blocking our will to have certain defects removed?
- What are the benefits of prayer and meditation?
- Do we have a willingness to be honest, tolerant and more loving? Why?

DISCUSS:

- What is the meaning of the Serenity Prayer? (God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference).
- Who or what will we become if this prayer is answered?

From the desk of your International Executive Secretary.

As we finish this edition of the Lifeline Bulletin, I would like to thank all the people, groups, Intergroups, and R.S.O.'s who send in contributions of some kind to help your International Service Office keep the doors open and help compulsive gamblers who still suffer.

In this issue, you'll see information about this year's Gratitude Week. This year, Gratitude Week will be Sunday, September 10 through Saturday, September 16, 2023. There will be a flier/letter sent out soon to your Intergroup and/or RSO, as well as your trustees.

There is going to be a walk-a-thon at the Chicagoland International Conference in November! It will be held Saturday, November 18, 2023. Check out the upcoming announcements for more information! If you have never been to an international conference, I strongly suggest going to at least one. They are so amazingly fun for fellowship, and you can meet tons of new people from all over the world.

In last month's bulletin, we reported incorrectly on some group contributions. We reported that Las Vegas Grupo Nuevo Amanecer donated some money. It was actually Las Vegas Grupo Nuevo Comienzo that donated the money to the I.S.O. We apologize for the error in reporting this contribution.

Below, you will see a list of literature suggestions. This was recently approved as appropriate literature at the Board of Trustees meeting in Cleveland in May.

This flier will soon be sent out to all trustees and Intergroups to get it into meeting rooms. I hope it's helpful for some of our members! As you'll see, with each step of abstinence/recovery, there is a list of suggested literature that might help our members in their journey.

If you would like to share your experience, strength, and hope with the fellowship, feel free to write your story on how you worked the steps. I would love to read them!

Yours in recovery and gratitude, KC B.

Gamblers Anonymous Gratitude Month

Who?

All Gamblers Anonymous Members, Groups, Intergroups and R.S.O.'s

What?

During the May 2011 Board of Trustees meeting in Cherry Hill, New Jersey a motion was made and passed as follows:

Make the month of September "GRATITUDE MONTH".

Where?

ALL AROUND THE G.A. WORLDWIDE FELLOWSHIP

When?

Every year from September 1st to September 30th

Why?

It's time to recognize your local Members, Groups, Intergroups, R.S.O.'s (Regional Service Offices) and the I.S.O. by coming together. Plan your socials, Mini-Conferences, fellowship events, picnics and fundraisers during the month of September in appreciation of Gamblers Anonymous and having G.A. meetings available in 66 Countries (and growing)!

So many of our, and others, lives have been saved by the Gamblers Anonymous Program since the beginning of that first G.A. meeting on September 13, 1957.

Let's all get involved and give back to a program that has given so much to us!

And don't forget about "GRATITUDE WEEK" which is held every year during the week in which September 13th appears to help G.A.I.S.O. continue carrying the message to each and every person who is still suffering.

How?

Email the I.S.O. at isomain@gamblersanonymous.org or contact your local Trustee
